

TOGETHER WE CAN DO MORE

SUBURBAN RAMSEY FAMILY COLLABORATIVE (SRFC) 2014-2015 COLLECTIVE IMPACT REPORT

Our Misson: To connect individuals, families and community resources to create relationships which enhance the well-being of our kids.

This year we focused on creating safe and honoring spaces to authentically welcome and engage children, youth, families and communities across race, age, class and culture.

ଙ୍କି ) LISTEN

By learning the art of authentic engagement from Marnita's Table's "Intentional Social Interaction" [AKA: ISI (pronounced Izzy)], we create conditions for safe and honest conversations about race, equity, culture, class and system barriers to help partners address disparities and inequities in our systems. OUTCOME: Over 600 community members attended an ISI community feast and conversation to-date.

"I actually value this model – it's welcoming, intentional, and it's not about assimilating to the dominant culture." - Cultural Liaison

C) PARTNER

From our community feasts and conversations (ISI), we bridge social capital which creates expanded and reciprocal networks and relationships. We build on these relationships to form strategic partnerships that improve protective factors and decrease risk factors for children, youth and families in our communities. OUTCOME: In response to our work with Marnita's Table, Youthprise created a $40,000 Systems Leveraging/Matching Grant challenge to support SRFC's Youth-led ISI's in our communities.

"Cross cultural discussions are uncomfortable ... It's hard to break into building relationships – this tool can help." - ISI attendee

INNOVATE

By taking risks, getting uncomfortable, practicing cultural consciousness, humility and learning new behaviors, we address barriers of difference that keep us from effectively working together to improve our communities and systems. We ask: "How are the children?" Our response to this question guides everything we do. OUTCOME: Over 160 youth and adults have learned the ISI touchpoints so they can host their own tables in the future.

"I think this is a great model and I am excited to see how this will impact our community in a positive way!" - ISI trainee Providing an umbrella of RESOURCES and SUPPORT to Suburban Ramsey children, youth and families.
